Motivating girl students to participate in co-curricular activities:

College Woman Development Committee (CWDC) handles the needs of the girl students in the Institute. CWDC motivates the girl students to participate in various curricular and co-curricular activities. Every year CWDC arranges different programs on the eve of "International Women's Day", and it felicitates eminent women of different fields. The speeches delivered by eminent women help in uplifting the morals of the girl students and perform better in academics.

Participation of girl students in various sports and cultural activities:

Every year, Institute organizes Cultural programs and Sports on campus. Separate sports events are organized for the girl students which include throw ball competitions, Kho-Kho, box cricket, athletics, etc. In the cultural event also, equal opportunity is given to the girls and boys and the selection of the programs is done by the judges.
